Relaxed country living

Broadmeadow Park lies just to the south west of Sandbach, one of Cheshire's most attractive market towns. Find the cobbled market square at its centre with the Anglo-Saxon crosses and a mix of Grade I and Grade II-listed buildings, also the location for its weekly open air markets.

Complete with its own Town Crier, this picture-perfect town is a multiple winner of the 'Britain in Bloom' annual award and the town has pretty streets peppered with historic buildings including the Old Hall, a 17th century inn, great for lazy Sunday lunches or light bites, and catching up with friends and family. Wander down the high street and find a whole range of highly recommended pubs, restaurants, cafés and independent shops, from artisan pizzas at Noughts & Crosses, world beers at The Beer Emporium and carefully curated cocktails at Raffaele, there's something for everyone.

Along with a Waitrose supermarket, Costa Coffee, Boots and Nationwide Building Society find everything you need in Sandbach or visit nearby Crewe for an even wider range of shops.

Throughout the year there are plenty of clubs and activities available across Sandbach to get involved with whilst Sandbach Leisure Centre has a 25m pool, a fully equipped gym and group cycling studio. Sandbach Park and Lakemoor Park offer open spaces for all of the family to enjoy and Sandbach Golf Club is just a short drive away from Broadmeadow Park.

Families with children of all ages will benefit from the close proximity of several schools including the Offley Primary Academy, Sandbach Boys School, St John's CE Primary and the prestigious Sandbach High School and Sixth Form.

Further afield is the beautiful Cheshire countryside with dramatic rolling hills, fragrant wildflower meadows and much more. The surrounding scenery is criss-crossed with public footpaths and bridleways for rewarding walks with breathtaking views; to the south of the Broadmeadow Park is the Wheelock rail trail, a two kilometre route for walkers and cyclists, whilst the Trent and Mersey canal is less than a mile from Broadmeadow Park, and is ideal for an early summer evening ramble along part of the celebrated Cheshire Ring route. ■
